

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

February 8, 2026

Matthew 5:13-16

Saint John's Evangelical Lutheran Church
48 Greene Avenue
Sayville, New York 11782
SUNDAY 9:30 AM

Welcome to Saint John's Evangelical Lutheran Church

Rejoice in God's grace. Live as disciples. Love one another.

Our Purpose

The family of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, gathered around Word and Sacrament, enhanced by liturgy and music, exists to encourage its members in a life of discipleship in Christ Jesus and fellowship with one another.

Utilizing the gifts that God has entrusted to us, we engage in acts of mercy, attending to the spiritual and physical needs within our congregation and community.

We bear witness to the Grace of God through living in His Word thus demonstrating the love Christ has shown us.

To Those Visiting with Us Today

We welcome you among us as we gather in God's presence to receive his benefits towards us. If this is your first time visiting, please introduce yourself to the Pastor on the way out. We pray God's blessings upon you in this time, and invite you to continue to join us in the future. Please contact the Pastor if you have any needs or questions about St. John's and the work for which he has called us.

A Guide to the Symbols in the Service

P = Pastor; L = Lector; C = Congregation

Anywhere the symbol  appears, the sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism. Please move in and out of the sanctuary at places marked with an asterisk (*).

As We Gather

It is a wonderful privilege and yet a crazy trust that Jesus gives us today. He has called us to be salt and light in the world, to be the seasoning that brings truth to peoples' lives, and a beacon of light pointing people to the true source of life. It is a blessing to be able to do this, even as we know we are not fit for this task. Yet Jesus does not leave us to our devices in this, but gives us His Spirit to aid us in these things. It is only by the Spirit that we are able to believe in Christ or bear witness to him, and the Spirit promises that he will equip us for this task so that the salt of the Gospel and the light of Christ may go forth into the world.

Today in the Church Year

Epiphany serves as the end of the Christmas season, bridging us over from Christ's birth to the beginning of his life and ministry. On the day of Epiphany, Christ is revealed as the savior of the world. Next, we see his divinity confirmed as the Father speaks and the Spirit descends in the waters of the Jordan at his baptism. Then he will call his disciples and will perform miracles. And finally, as the hinge that leads us into the holy season of Lent, our Lord will be transfigured into a vision of light as he prepares to set his face toward Jerusalem to accomplish the salvation of the world. The season of Epiphany prepares us for this salvation, and serves to reveal the mystery of Christ's identity and his work to us. The initial color for the season is white, but yields to green to symbolize the light of Christ revealed through the growth accomplished by his word. Transfiguration Sunday will again be white to show forth the purity and holiness of the God-Man, Jesus.

† IN NOMINE JESU - IN THE NAME OF JESUS †

A Prayer upon Entering Church

God of grace, you have given us minds to know you, hearts to love you, and voices to sing your praise. Fill us with your Spirit, that we may celebrate your glory and worship you in spirit and truth; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Invocation, Confession and Absolution (Matt. 28:19b)

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P In the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness. (Heb. 10:22)

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth. (Ps. 124:8)

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. (Ps. 32:5)

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit. (Jn. 20:19-23)

C Amen.

Old Testament Reading

L The Old Testament Reading for The Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany is taken from Isaiah, the fifty-eighth chapter.

³ Why have we fasted, and you see it not?

Why have we humbled ourselves, and you take no knowledge of it?

Behold, in the day of your fast you seek your own pleasure, and oppress all your workers.

⁴*Behold, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to hit with a wicked fist.*

Fasting like yours this day will not make your voice to be heard on high.

⁵*Is such the fast that I choose,
a day for a person to humble himself?*

*Is it to bow down his head like a reed,
and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him?*

*Will you call this a fast,
and a day acceptable to the LORD?*

⁶*“Is not this the fast that I choose:
to loose the bonds of wickedness,
to undo the straps of the yoke,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to break every yoke?*

⁷*Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house;
when you see the naked, to cover him,
and not to hide yourself from your own flesh?*

⁸*Then shall your light break forth like the dawn,
and your healing shall spring up speedily;
your righteousness shall go before you;
the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.*

⁹*Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer;
you shall cry, and he will say, ‘Here I am.’*

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle

1 Corinthians 2:1-12

L The Epistle is from First Corinthians, the second chapter.

¹*And I, when I came to you, brothers, did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God with lofty speech or wisdom. ²For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. ³And I was with you in weakness and in fear and much trembling, ⁴and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.*

⁶Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. ⁷But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. ⁸None of the rulers of this age understood this, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹But, as it is written,

*“What no eye has seen, nor ear heard,
nor the heart of man imagined,
what God has prepared for those who love him”*—

¹⁰these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. ¹¹For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. ¹²Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 5:13-20

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the fifth chapter.

¹³[Jesus said:] “You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people’s feet.

¹⁴“You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

¹⁷“Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. ¹⁸For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. ¹⁹Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

²⁰“For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Apostles' Creed

C I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life  everlasting. Amen.

The term “catholic” means the whole Church as it confesses the wholeness of Christian doctrine.*

Lord, speak to me that I may speak in living echoes of Your tone;
As You have sought, so let me seek Your straying children, lost and lone.

Oh, lead me, Lord, that I may lead the wandering and the wavering feet;

O, teach us, Lord, that we may teach the precious truths which You impart;
And wing our words, that they may reach the hidden depths of many a heart.

O, use me, Lord, use even me, just as You will and when, and where;
Until Your blessed face I see, Your rest, Your joy, Your glory share.

C It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

P It is truly meet, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord; for what had been hidden from before the foundation of the world You have made known to the nations in Your Son. In Him, being found in the substance of our mortal nature, You have manifested the fullness of Your glory. Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious name, evermore praising You and saying:

who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory

P Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: “Take, eat; this is My $\text{\textt{T}}$ body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.” In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: “Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My $\text{\textt{T}}$ blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

Distribution

Please read what Saint John's believes concerning the Sacrament of the Altar:

As Lutherans, we believe, teach, and confess that in the Holy Supper all receive the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ with their mouth. Believers feed on Christ for the assurance of salvation and the strengthening of their faith.

To assure that our Lord's great gifts are received in a beneficial way, Holy Scripture says in 1 Corinthians 11:28-29 "A man ought to examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment on himself." Self examination includes:

- 1) The confession that we are sinful and in need of God's forgiveness. (Ps 51; Romans 3: 9-28)
- 2) The faith that Jesus Christ is truly and actually present in the Sacrament, offering His very Body and Blood for all to eat, so that our sins are forgiven. (Mt 26: 26-28; 1 Cor 10: 16-21)
- 3) The sincere resolve, with the Holy Spirit's help, to amend what is sinful in our life by actively belonging to a body of believers where these Scriptural truths are preached and taught. (Acts 2: 42; Ephesians 2: 8-10)
If this reflects your belief and you are a member in good standing, not under discipline, at a congregation of The Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod or a church body with which we are in fellowship, we welcome you to the Lord's Table and pray that His Body and Blood will be for your soul the highest good. If you are not sure, or do not understand, we ask that you speak with the Pastor, at your earliest convenience, prior to communing. If you would like to come to the altar and receive a personal blessing instead of the Eucharist, please cross your arms over your chest as a sign to the pastor.

Distribution will take place around the altar. Both sides of the church will be ushered forward up the center aisle at the same time with the first person in line starting at the center, and the rest fanning out along the sides. Once everyone has come forward, you will be invited to kneel, if able, to receive the Sacrament. Once all have received, and the pastor announces the dismissal, you may stand and the two people in the middle will turn and start back to their seats, with both sides following and returning via the side aisles.

A Prayer before Communing

Holy Father, we ask you now, by this blessed food and drink, to deliver your church from every evil, to teach it to love you perfectly, and make it truly one, even as this bread was made from many grains of wheat to become the carrier of the body of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Vacation Bible School Help - In case you haven't heard, our Winter Break VBS is a go, February 17-20 from 9:30a-12 noon! As such, we could use some help with running the event. Teens and adults are welcome to assist. Please contact the church office if you are interested. A meeting will be held on Sunday, February 15 after the 9:30 service to go over the plans for the week and decorate the spaces. Additionally, we are also in need of snacks and juice. Individually wrapped items would be most beneficial (Goldfish, fruit snack, juice boxes, etc.) Items can be dropped off in the office, or the cloak room on Sundays. Thanks, in advance for your help!

Trustees - We are looking to reignite the Trustees, a group of people who help with the ongoing maintenance and repair of our building and houses. The goal is to create a pool of people who have skills in certain areas who would be willing to do some work around the church as needed. A list of projects would be made known on a regular basis, and if you are available and able to handle something, you could volunteer to do it when it is convenient for you. Or, it may be as simple as recommending a particular contractor that you have used in the past and think might do a good job for the church if the project is bigger than a Home Depot repair. If you are interested in being included in this group, please speak to Pastor.

Service Help - The signup sheet to assist with Lent and Holy Week services has been posted. Please take a look and help out where you can. Thanks!

Golf Committee - Do you love coordinating and planning events? Would you like to utilize that joy in assisting our Church to support the community? Consider joining the Golf Committee! We are currently looking for a new chair to help lead our merry band of volunteers. Knowledge of golf or ability to play is not required. If you are interested, or have questions, please speak to Charlie Erb or Pastor Noack. It is a lot of fun, so please consider joining us!

Faith Renewal - The next set of classes for new members, or as a refresher for current members, will begin on Wednesday, February 25, following the 7pm service each week through Lent. A sign-up sheet will be posted on the bulletin board, or you may contact the Church Office, if you wish to participate. All are welcome!

LCMS Atlantic District Festival of Workshops - Save the date for this annual event to be held on March 7 on the campus of SUNY Maritime. This is a great day of learning and networking with leaders and congregants from churches all over our district. More information will be forthcoming once registration is available, and plans for carpooling will also be arranged. Please consider joining us!
